A Clever Son Here Also.

One of our greatest pleasures on our trip to Whitakers this week was to meet and talk with Elder A. J. Moore, an old resident of that place, and one of the best loved and revered citizens of that community. He being the father of our young Mr. Moore, of the A. C. L. railroad company at Wilson, made him all the more interesting to a Wilson man. He is one of the finest and most congenial spirits we have met in a long time. He is well and favorably known in Wilson and in all the surrounding country.—Wilson Messenger.

The foregoing is by Rev. J. T. Jenks, pastor of the Baptist church in Wilson and editor of The Messenger. Mr. Moore's many friends in this community will appreciate these good words, and we are glad to tell our neighbor, The Messenger, that the clever Coast Line agent at Scotland Neck is also a son of Mr. Moore at Whitakers.

Death of Mr. J. R. Bradley.

Mr. J. R. Bradley died in the hospital in Norfolk on the 19th, and the body was sent to his old home near Hobgood Halifax county, for burial. He was taken to the hospital about three weeks ago sick with typhoid fever. Naturally of a frail constitution and desperately ill from the beginning his condition caused grave apprehension to his physician and friends. Soon after reaching the hospital he had three severe hemorrhages in one night and the report got out that he was dead. He rallied, however, and survived for ten days. Mr. Bradley was about 27 or 28 years old. He had been in the employment of W. W. Parker a little more than a year and had made many friends among our people. He was a fine young man and a competent druggist. Mr. Augustus Bradley, of Burlington, is a brother of his.—Henderson Gold Leaf.

Why Not?

Why not have a canning factory in Scotland Neck?
Why not have a first class laundry in Scotland Neck?
Why not have a carriage factory in Scotland Neck?
Why not get a hustle on for some other things?
Why not get down to all these businesses at once?

Now is the time to guard the health and strength of the lungs. The best remedy to use for coughs and colds is Bee's Laxative Honey and Tar. The only cough syrup that does not constipate the bowels, but which on the other hand, expels all cold from the system by acting as a pleasant laxative. Best for coughs, colds, croup, whooping cough, etc. E. T. Whitehead & Co., Scotland Neck, Leggett's Drug Store, Hobgood.

There is nothing so pleasant as that bright, cheerful, at-peace-with-the-world feeling when you sit down to your breakfast. There is nothing so conducive to good work and good results. The healthy man with a healthy mind and body is a better fellow, a better workman, a better citizen than the man or woman who is handicapped by some disability, however slight. A slight disorder of the stomach will derange your body, your thoughts and your disposition. Get away from the morbidness and the blues. Keep your stomach in tune and both your brain and body will respond. Little indications of over eating can be easily corrected and you will be surprised to see how much better man you are. Try a little Kodol for Dyspepsia after your meals. Sold by E. T. Whitehead.
